

PostNet signs national deal with Xerox Canada

TORONTO, ON, Feb. 19, 2009 – PostNet International, the largest and fastest-growing privately held company in the postal and business services industry, has become an official partner of Xerox Canada. All locally-owned and operated PostNet locations across Canada now feature Xerox digital copying and printing services. Pictured with their new Xerox Docucolor 252 digital colour press is Zohrab Sarkissian, franchise owner, PostNet North York, (L) and Robert Anderson, president, PostNet Canada. PostNet has more than 850 locations worldwide.